President's Program.

Plans for the Summer Subject to Change.

AT DEER PARK FOR TWO WEEKS.

He Will Then Go to Bar Harbor for Another Fortnight—Appointments Made by the President—Extra Session of Congress Talk—Other Dispatches From Washington.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—While the plans of the president for the summer have been mapped out in a general way, they are subject to change at any time, for a definite program has not been determined upon.

To-day the president and Mrs. Harrison will leave Washington for Deer Park, where they will remain for two weeks. At the end of that time the president will return to Washington, and after spending a few days here will join Secretary Blaine at Bar Harbor, remaining with him another fortnight.

Mrs. Harrison has not yet decided whether she will accompany the president on this northern trip. At the conclusion of his visit to Mr. Blaine, the president will again come to Washington and prepare for a longer stay at Deer Park. It is his intention to be there during the whole month of September. It is probable that the program given will be carried out, although the length of the president's stay at each place may be changed through his personal desires or the demands of public business.

Appointments.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The president has made the following appointments: William Rule, of Tennessee, to be pension agent at Knoxville; William A. Richards, of Wyoming, to be surveyor general of Wyoming; Boetius Sullivan, of Dakota, to be surveyor general of Dakota.

To be registers of land offices: Charles B. Cornell, of Nebraska, at Valentine, Neb.; Edward P. Champlin, of Wyoming, at Cheyenne, W. T.; Martin J. Wright, of California, at Visalia, Cal.; John A. McBeth, of Colorado, at Denver, Col.

To be receivers of public moneys: Robert L. Freeman, of California, at Visalia, Cal.; Leroy Grant, of Wyoming, at Cheyenne, W. T.

To be Indian agents—T. J. Buford, of Oregon, at the Siletz agency in Oregon; John P. McGinn, of Washington territory, at the Neath Bay agency in Washington territory; D. J. M. Wood, at the Ponca, Pawnee, Otoe and Oakland agency in the Indian territory.

It Will Be Inquired Into.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—It is said at the state department that Secretary Blaine and Minister Reid, have by no means resolved to drop the case of the three American ladies who are alleged to have been unlawfully imprisoned by officials at Mentone, France. Minister Reid has the matter in hand at present, and his last advice to the state department were that he had gathered all his material for proceedings to take action in the case, with the exception of securing the affidavits of the three ladies, who do not seem to be in any hurry to get back to Paris where their statements are to be taken. A state department official said to-day that there might be some misunderstanding between Minister Reid and the ladies, as to where their deposition should be taken, but the department had arranged to effectually dispose of such a difficulty if any such has occurred. The state department will take action on the case when the affidavits of the ladies are received.

Extra Session Talk.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Hon. Nathan Frank, representative from the Ninth Missouri district was among the president's visitors yesterday. After his interview with Mr. Harrison Congressman Frank expressed the conviction that there would be an extra session of congress called, probably in October.

"I believe that the date of the extra session will depend upon the result of the elections in the new states," said Mr. Frank. "If those states send a strong Republican delegation to congress as is expected the president will probably issue the proclamation admitting them to the Union Oct. 15 and call the extra session of congress for the latter part of October or the first of November. If, however, we should be disappointed in the result of the elections, I think congress will be called together early in October. I do not speak with any authority, but that is my judgment."

River and Harbor Improvements.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The report of Lieut. Beach, in charge of river and harbor improvements in western Pennsylvania and Ohio, contains the following estimate for the year ending June 30, 1891: Allegheny river, Pennsylvania, $50,000; dam at Hen's Island, Allegheny river, $100,000; Lee Harbor, at mouth of Muskingum river, Ohio, $15,000.

Lieut. Beach says in his report on Allegheny river: "Much relief can be given the struggling commerce of the river by continuing the class of work now under way, as many localities remain that require improvement. I would call special attention to three places, viz., Hickory ripple, Pitt Hole ripple and Cowanshan Rock ripple. At each of these a dike is needed to better its condition."

Trying the New War Vessels.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—Secretary Tracy has decided to send the new vessels, Chicago, Boston, Atlanta and Yorktown, to Newport at an early day, where speed and turning trials will be made in accordance with established regulations.

FIGHTING FAMILIES.

A Pitched Battle Between Two Families and Their Friends.

BIRMINGHAM, July 20.—A pitched battle occurred yesterday morning in the western part of this county, between the Simpson and Houghton families and friends of both sides. A bloody feud between the Simpsons and Houghtons has existed for three years. In the first fight yesterday two of the Houghton party were killed outright and several of the other party were wounded. Simpsons and their friends then took refuge in an old barn and were attacked by a party of officers guided by J. B. Houghton. The Simpsons opened fire and killed one of the officers, Deputy Sheriff Morgan, of this city, and fatally wounded Houghton. The fire was returned and one of the Simpson party killed, but the officers retired without making arrests.

A messenger from the scene of the battle has just arrived with a request that the sheriff send a strong posse at once, as more blood-shed is expected. Five of the Houghtons and three of the Simpsons have been killed since the feud began three years ago, and many others wounded. The two families are among the wealthiest and most prominent residents in the western part of the county.

Running a Typewriter Swindle.

NEW YORK, July 20.—United States Commissioner Shields yesterday held John F. Latimer, of Niverville, N. Y., in $1,500 bail for trial on a charge of using the mails for illegal purposes. It is said that Latimer has been doing a thriving business selling fake typewriters for some time. His game, if the charge be true, was to send postal cards over the country stating that he was manufacturing typewriters worth $25 each, and in order to introduce them to the public he would sell them for $1.35 each. Hundreds of answers were received with the $1.35 enclosed, but all they got in return was a small pasteboard box containing blocks with letters on them, with the "To Amuse Children."

Railroad Travel Delayed.

DEER PARK, Md., July 20.—The heavy rain yesterday raised the streams to a great height in the mountains, carrying away bridges and doing considerable damage. Trains are delayed on the Parkersburg branch of the Baltimore and Ohio by a heavy washout. No passenger trains have reached here from Cincinnati since last night at 10 o'clock.

Six Men Drowned.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 20.—Six men were drowned while attempting to shoot Roaches rapids with a raft. The names of the unfortunate were not ascertained, but it is known that they belong to Quebec. They were returning from shanties in the lumber districts, where they had been working during the last six months.

Train Men Injured in a Wreck.

MERIDEN, Conn., July 20.—A mixed train on the Meriden, Waterbury and Connecticut railroad last night jumped a bridge at Duffy's crossing, near here, wrecking the engine and four freight cars. Three train men were injured and James Lynn fatally. Cars containing thirty passengers narrowly escaped going down.

Wholesale Liquor House Assets.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 20.—Messrs. Pearce and Ryan, doing a wholesale liquor business has made an assignment for the benefit of their creditors. The assets of the firm consist of a stock of liquors in their store-house, and accounts against various parties. Liabilities $103,089 21. Assets, $133,149 60.

Didn't Know It Was Loaded.

LEBANON, Ind., July 20.—Lewis Smith, 22, single, living five miles south of here, was accidentally shot Thursday night by a 13-year-old boy, who playfully pointed a shotgun at him, calling him to halt. It was loaded with buckshot and exploded, the contents entering Smith's abdomen. He will die.

NEW YORK, July 20.—Charlie Mitchell, the English pugilist, with Mike Donovan, who seconded Kilrain in the recent fight at Richburg, Mass., has fled to Canada. It is stated that when he learned that Detective Norris was after him with a requisition from Governor Lowry, he consulted a lawyer, who informed him that he was not safe within the United States. It is further stated that he left the city on Wednesday night over the Erie railroad.

Powderly Interviewed

He Is Incensed at President Corbin's Actions.

A WORKINGMAN'S LIBERTY

The General Master Workman Issues an Address to the Pennsylvania Labor Assemblies Directing How Ballots Should Be Used—The Workingman's Power If at the Polls.

CHICAGO, July 20.—The recent order of President Corbin, of the Reading railroad, in which he says that no man will be employed in the mining properties recently acquired by the railroad company, if he be a member of any labor organization other than those strictly limited to purposes of benevolence and insurance has aroused the indignation of the Knights of Labor. Powderly says of it:

"We take a great deal of comfort from the fact that a recent decision of the courts in a suit against the Missouri Pacific railroad has established the principle that a railroad company, as a common carrier, cannot, under its charter, own and operate mines or properties contiguous to its road. In Pennsylvania there is a constitutional prohibition of this very thing, and since President Corbin has issued such an arbitrary order, which anyone can see is very far-reaching in its results and aimed at the serious abridgement of the reasonable exercise of personal liberty, we propose to see whether the courts of the state of Pennsylvania will not fairly construe the state constitutional provision and secure to the citizen his freedom of action in such a strictly personal privilege."

In reference to this subject Mr. Powderly has issued a letter to members of the Pennsylvania assemblies and all those interested in which, after reciting some facts about the Molly Maguire organization of fourteen years ago, he takes the following ground on the present trouble.

"Time has rolled on. Labor organization has revived and possibly some foolish acts were perpetrated by some of the organized ones, but their very worst doings could not, does not, cannot equal the treasurable actions of the officials of the Reading Railroad company. A strike was necessary and in 1887 the men were warned that Austin Corbin and a few others, I am not certain of the numbers, wanted to control the stock of the Reading and that they would in all probability be driven to a strike if not careful."

"The strike came. It was carefully and deliberately planned by the officials of the Reading company and when the proper time arrived Austin Corbin gave consent and it was allowed to proceed. The rest is known to the public or will be by the time we get through with him. In defiance of constitutional law the Reading company continues to do two kinds of business, when the constitution of Pennsylvania expressly forbids it. Mr. Corbin goes still farther—he buys the Reading iron works and then tells the men that he will have no more organization among workmen."

"Mr. Corbin is justified in believing that he has the right to say what men in his employ may do in the home in which they are not at work. But in their actions during the fourteen years have given him the right to think that the state is his, with which he may do as he pleases. If he will still farther drive the men to murder and assassination, as his predecessors did, he will be able to throw more dust in the eyes of a sleepy commonwealth, which allows its most valuable franchise to be controlled and wasted by men who do not reside in the state, who do not care for the state, and whose every act is one of violation of the state constitution. Shout for eight hours if you will, but what are your short hours if during the time you are not at work Austin Corbin shall dictate what you shall do?"

"Don't blame Austin Corbin for what he is doing. It is cowardly to whine about the oppressions of capital when we have the remedy in our hands. It is worse than cowardly to know how to do a thing and not do it. What is the remedy? I answer there is no remedy while the state of Pennsylvania is cursed with the presence of millions of Democratic and Republican workingmen who do not realize that they should be citizens, freemen, patriots before being partisans."

"What will you do, I ask? How will you remedy the evil short of Anarchy and revolution? I answer, through a wise and judicious use of the ballot. Right here let me say to you that the man who now hints at deeds of violence as a remedy is a traitor to the state. If after all that has been told you do not know how to apply the proper remedy then your cause is hopeless."

"We cannot compel obedience to the laws of Pennsylvania while men can be brow-beaten at the polls and compelled to vote as the corporation boss, the political boss, and the rum boss dictate. Before we can move hand or foot in the way of reform we must throw every safeguard around the ballot box. No rifles or bayonets, bombs or other weapons of cowards or weaklings will be necessary. What we require is a secret ballot, one by which the party freemen can become in truth freemen."

The master workman advocates the adoption of some such system of ballot reform as the Australian, asking that laboring men step aside from party ranks and join him in the demand. He closes by saying:

"You have trifled too long, men of Pennsylvania. It is time to work, and your duty is plain. Take this question up in your assemblies and act upon it. Allow no fault-finding, grumbling member to stop you because it is a political question. It is a political question, and one that concerns your daily bread—that bread for which you pray but for which you have to work like slaves or do without. I do not ask you to stop praying for bread, but I would ask you to work for it and vote for it in a different manner from that in which you have been working and voting."

"How many will act? How many will vote as I suggest? How many will cease to tie the American citizen's highest prerogative to the chariot wheels of party and caucus that they may forge to the head of the procession and there do duty as becomes Americans who know how to wield the ballot."

SWEEP BY FLOOD.

Residences Washed Away and Many Lives Lost in the Little Kanawha.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 20.—A special from Parkersburg, W. Va., says: The greatest disaster which ever befell Little Kanawha valley came Thursday night in the shape of a terrible cloud-burst, which has completely flooded the country, destroying many lives, carrying off thousands of dollars in property and ruining the crops for many miles. The deluge fell here about dusk, and continued to fall in torrents, doing much damage in the city.

The worst of the storm struck the lower side of the Kanawha, filling small tributaries from bank to bank, and ending in the worst flood within the recollection of the oldest inhabitants. In three hours the Kanawha raised six feet, and ran out with such velocity that it carried everything before it. At this point thousands of logs and a number of boats went out or were sunk. Little Kanawha company lost 2,000 logs; West Mill, ten rafts; Barringer, several fleets; W. P. Padden, five barges with ties, several of which were caught below; Keever & Company, lost four barges of coal; Miller, three rafts and 2,000 ties; Taylor, one fleet of timber; Charles Wells, four barges. In one hour 5,000 logs went out.

Mrs. Isaac H. Tucker, Martin Lawless and an unknown man were drowned.

Above the destruction was still greater. Big Tygart valley is completely ruined. The big mill near its mouth went out and took the Tygart bridge with it. In the valley all the fences, crops and much live stock were lost. At Chesterville, a small town about ten miles above, half the residences were carried off bodily and left in cornfields. In Clay district, a fine church and three dwellings were wrecked.

About noon information was received that the steamer Oneida had been wrecked and sunk at Enterprise above. Still later a report came that the steamer C. C. Martin was sunk at Burning Springs. The Little Tygart is also reported completely ruined. Heatherington's store, Capt. Spencer's residence, C. P. Cooper's residence and that of J. W. Smith are completely demolished, but no lives are reported lost as yet.

The worst story of all comes from Morristown, a small village near the head of Tucker creek, where the cloud-burst concentrated in all its fury, coming down in the village about midnight and totally destroying it, together with many of its people. The first report gave the loss at eleven, but later news seems to fix the loss at a greater number.

The houses of the citizens are said to have been picked up and hurled against each other in such short space of time that no chance to escape was given the people. Among those lost at Morristown are Jake Kiger, his brothers, Joseph and Thomas, a man named Bailey, Orville West, wife and child. The body of a man, believed to be another Morristown victim, was found on Richardson farm this morning.

At Pill Brush, all bridges and culverts are washed away, and it is impossible to reach or communicate with that point or any other of upper waters. It is impossible now to enumerate the losses even here, as the river is still rising and everything loose.

A family boat containing three or four persons went out during the night and it is believed all are lost, as the last seen of them was when the woman held up a child in her arms and beckoned for assistance as the house disappeared in the flood.

A freight train on the Ohio River railroad broke through a trestle at Harris ferry, completely wrecking the train and fatally injuring William Neptune, an employe. The wreck was caused by a heavy washout. Baltimore and Ohio trains are delayed by washout at Kanawha station.

It is just reported that Lock No. 1, above the city on the Little Kanawha, has given way before the flood.

In the Hocking Valley.

NELSONVILLE, O., July 20.—A terrible storm swept over this valley Thursday night. The Hocking river began to rise at 3 o'clock yesterday morning and continued until 11 o'clock, doing much damage. The crops are almost totally destroyed in the entire valley.

A trestle at Wright's siding gave way while a north bound coal train was crossing, completely wrecking the tender and ten cars of coal, piling them in one solid mass in the chasm below. James Welch, brakeman, miraculously escaped death. He jumped from the falling cars and swam ashore, with only a sprained ankle. All the streams in this vicinity are up, and several bridges have been swept away. There has been no serious damage to city property, and the river is slowly receding.

A Burglar's Harvest.

TRENTON, N. J., July 20.—A gang of burglars have been working this city for several days. The store of C. B. Lawshe, a dry goods merchant, was robbed last night of $3,000 worth of silks.

Professor Hogan Still Missing.

NEW YORK, July 20.—The missing aeronaut, Professor Hogan, has not been heard from, and it is believed that he is undoubtedly lost.

Democratic Ticket.

STATE-ELECTION AUGUST 5, 1889.

S. G. SHARP, Fayette County.

LEGISLATIVE-ELECTION, AUGUST 5, 1889.

FOR SENATOR.

CHARLES B. POYNTZ, Mason County.

For Assessor-JOHN C. EVERETT.

For Coroner-M. T. COCKRELL.

BOURBON COUNTY Republicans have not named any candidate for Representative, and Hon. C. M. Thomas will likely have a walk-over. He deserves the unanimous vote of the people of his county.

THE Democrats have a handsome majority in this State, but votes don't count unless they are polled. We want to see the full Democratic vote of the county cast on August 5 for Poyntz, Frazee and Sharp.

J. BEN SMITH, a prominent colored man of this city, is an applicant for a place under Collector Goodloe.-Maysville Republican.

The "pie" has about all been distributed, and J. Ben is still waiting for a "slice." The indications are that he will have to wait. The Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat says the report is now contradicted that Joe Smoot, a colored Republican of that place, has been appointed Storekeeper.

In speaking of the purchase of 500,000 enameled brick in England, the Philadelphia Real Estate Record says:

"It is generally conceded that Philadelphia is now producing an enameled brick that is without a superior in the world. A high tariff administration purchasing from English manufacturers English material for American Government buildings with money representing the thrift and labor of American workmen is protecting American labor with a vengeance. The 'pauper labor of Europe' does not seem to be such a stench in the nostrils of some people as it did before the election."

KENTUCKY Republicans know they haven't a ghost of a show to get control of the next Legislature. From every section come reports of their nominees for Senator and Representative declining. Perhaps there is a deep-laid scheme in all this. Perhaps they seek to lull their opponents to sleep and then get out their full vote for Colson on election day. Let Democrats be on their guard and not be caught napping. There are special reasons why every vote should be polled for Sharp.

At the Tammany Hall centennial celebration in New York, July 4th, a letter from ex-President Cleveland was read. The New York World, which is unfavorable to Cleveland, says of the reception: The enthusiasm over Mr. Cleveland's letter surprised even the Tammany Hall chiefs. As soon as the reading of the letter was finished there was an outburst of applause. The applause grew louder and louder. As it continued the chiefs looked at each other, and then glanced over the enthusiastic assembly. Grover Cleveland never got such a greeting in the Wigwam while in the White House.

Grover's all right. He is more popular to-day than he was four years ago. He is the people's champion in the fight for tariff reform.

The Railway World.

President Ingalls, of the C. & O., is in the East to remain about two weeks.

The number of locomotives in the United States is now over 29,000, to which Canada and Mexico can add about 3,300, making the total number on the North American continent not far from 32,000.

The L. & N. has declared a 3 per cent. semi-annual dividend, payable in stock. The gross earnings of the road for the year ending June 30 were $16,598,535, an increase of $238,000 over the previous year.

Mrs. Zeis, of Newport, has sued the C. & O. for $3,000 damages. She attempted to step over a rope used in unloading a gravel train, when the cable was suddenly stretched with such force as to throw her into the air several feet, seriously injuring her.

Clark County voted a subscription of $100,000 Thursday to the Louisville, Cincinnati and Virginia road by 500 majority. The fight was a warm one, and money was freely used on both sides. Estill County votes to-day on a proposition to subscribe $50,000 to the same road, and Lee County soon will vote on a similar proposition. This road will be built from Winchester to Beattyville at the Three Forks of the Kentucky River, and thence to Cumberland Gap. The road must be finished to Beattyville by February, 1891. It will penetrate the rich coal and iron fields of Eastern Kentucky.

The old house of "O. & B." always did a big business, and the new firm the Frank Owens Hardware Company, are not only maintaining the record, but report much larger sales. They have lately furnished supplies to six firms of railroad contractors. Look over their advertisement in this issue and see the line of specialties they are now offering.

How Things Change.

[New York World.]

The two plug tobacco firms mentioned as being established at St. Louis do by far the largest business in plug tobacco in this country. Liggett & Myers do over $20,000,000 a year and Drummond & Co. over $10,000,000. What Mr. Lorillard does now is not known, but he is third in the race anyway. How rapidly things change in this country is illustrated by the fact that in 1880 Lorillard's manufactory did a business of $6,000,000 a year, and practically had no rival. Their business was built up by ingenious devices, such as placing crisp $100 bills in so many papers of tobacco out of so many thousand, and offering handsome meerschaum pipes to their customers under certain conditions to be fulfilled by their customers.

The tobacco became so popular that the New York firm was able to dictate terms to the jobbers and retailers throughout the country, and was able to force a stipulation whereby certain tobacco merchants were prohibited from selling any other except the Lorillard tobacco. In eight years, however, it will be seen that rivals have sprung up in the West, and that the business done on the other side of the Mississippi River is far greater than was ever done here in the East. People who talk about the decline of chewing among Americans are invited to give a moment's attention to the fact that they pay the two St. Louis firms mentioned over $30,000,000 for tobacco to chew.

THINGS ARE WHOOPING AT THE ODDFELLOWS' HALL CLOTHING STORE THIS WEEK--AMONG THE NOVELTIES RECEIVED IN THE PAST FEW DAYS ARE SEVERAL LINES OF

FLANNEL AND IMPORTED SCOTCH CHEVIOT NEGLIGEE AND LAWN TENNIS SHIRTS AND TIES

They are simply elegant. We said last week that we are selling off our light-weight goods to make room for our Winter Stock, and that prices are no consideration in their disposal. To those not well posted in the manner of manufacturing clothing it struck a little odd to talk about Winter Goods, with the thermometer way up in the nineties, but we always mean what we say. We received during this week thirty-eight cases of Fall and Winter Goods. The pedestrians that passed our store while we were opening them can testify to this, for it was a hard matter to get by. We tender our apologies to the gentler sex for the inconvenience occasioned. We have still a big stock of Summer Goods on hand, and until they are closed out we cannot well find room for our Fall stock. They MUST be sold. It will be your fault if you do not take advantage of our necessities. Come in and load up with good goods for LESS MONEY than the material can be bought for, not counting the making and trimmings.

TWO YEARS!

Henrietta McDaniel Adjudget Guilty, But Given the Lowest Penalty Fixed by the Law.

Guilty of manslaughter, and the punishment fixed at but two years' imprisonment in the penitentiary.

Such is the verdict of the jury in the case of the Commonwealth against Henrietta McDaniel for killing E. J. Cross, the showman.

The jury took the case at one o'clock yesterday afternoon, and their decision was reported an hour later. Some of the jurors were in favor of sending her up for twenty-one years, the limit of the law for manslaughter, and a few were in favor of acquittal.

There is general disgust in the community over the light penalty. A citizen was heard to say: "The jury ought to be sent up for six years for reporting such a verdict." Other comments as severe are heard.

From a reliable authority it is learned that the jury stood as follows on first ballot: For manslaughter and twenty-one years' imprisonment—Josiah Wilson, Jack Wheeler, Robt. Lane, C. B. Chamberlain, C. G. Cady, Geo. D. Jenkins and Thomas Tolle. For acquittal—John Blanchard, John Farley, J. M. Sidwell, Richard Applegate and H. C. Smith.

It is learned also that those who were in favor of the limit, in agreeing finally to the light penalty, were governed by the belief that if the jury hung it would be impossible to get the showmen Prince and Murphy, the principal witnesses for the prosecution, back here to testify at a future trial, and that the accused in that event might get off scot free.

DANIEL MCAULIFFE, whose death at Cincinnati was recently noticed, left an estate worth about $3,500. His will was probated at that place Thursday. James Armstrong qualified as executor. With the exception of $400 to pay for his monument, the deceased bequeathed his entire estate to the "Little Sisters of the Poor." He left relatives in this city.

THERE were 3,561 marriages in Cincinnati the past year. There were eleven mixed marriages, that is, between white and colored persons, in each case the man being colored and the woman white. Another feature of the marriage record was the issuing of licenses to ninety-three persons who had been divorced. Of these three couples were re-married after being divorced from each other.

THE colored camp meeting at Dieterich's Park continues with much success. A large attendance is expected to-morrow. Excursion trains will arrive from Lexington, Richmond, Winchester, Paris and other points on the K. C. and from Cincinnati, Covington and other points on the C. & O. There will be preaching at 11 a. m., 3 p. m. and 8 p. m. Rev. J. T. Stewart, pastor in charge, is assisted by Revs. J. W. Carr, of Indianapolis, and J. F. Thomas, of Chicago.

WAR ON THE RIVER.

The Fight Between the Handy No 2 and the "White Collar" Line.

The war between the Manchester packets, Handy No. 2 and Minnie Bay, is still on and the rivalry is more spirited than ever. The latter is the "White Collar" line's boat and was placed in the trade solely for the purpose of running the Handy to the bank, but the indications are that she has an all-summer contract on hand. The "White Collar" line—the old reliable—has never yet been worsted, however, and the present fight is watched with much interest on all sides.

When the Handy entered the trade she fixed the rates for passenger and freight traffic very low. To these she has closely adhered, and is "pursuing the even tenor of her way" and letting the opposition do all the "cutting" they want to. Captain Redden claims she is doing a better business now than when the Bay entered the trade.

Most of the merchants and shippers at Manchester are warm friends of the Handy in her present fight, and are considerably worked up over the attempt of the big packet company to run her out of the trade. They have established a new wharfbat at that place in opposition to the old one which is controlled by the "White Collar" line, or is, at least, so regarded. An incident showing the interest they take in the "war" occurred there one day this week. Mr. Vance, the merchant, ordered some goods from Cincinnati and directed them to be shipped on the Handy. They were shipped on the Bay, however, and were unloaded on the old wharfbat. Mr. Vance refused to receive them, and has notified the Cincinnati house that he would buy his goods elsewhere if they couldn't ship them as he directed.

But this is not all. The Handy seems to have stirred up things all along the route. When she first entered the trade Captain David Gibson, owner of the Chilo packet Tacomah, sent word that if she wasn't withdrawn he would extend the Tacomah's trips to Ripley. She wasn't withdrawn. The Bay then entered the fight, and her rates are so low that she is seriously interfering with the Tacomah's business. Captain Gibson now threatens to place a boat in opposition to the "White Collar" line's packet in the Cincinnati and Madison trade if the Bay isn't withdrawn from the Manchester trade. And so the fight goes. In the meantime the shippers and traveling public are reaping the benefit of low rates.

DUN'S WEEKLY TRADE REVIEW.

A Great Increase in Clearing House Transactions at All the Large Trade Centers—Active and Prosperous Fall Trade Anticipated—A Favorable Crop Prospect.

New York, July 20.—R. G. Dun & Company's review of trade says: For the dull season of the year, business continues remarkably large. The increase in clearing house transaction for July, thus far, has been about 30 per cent. at New York, about 15 per cent. at Boston, Philadelphia and Chicago taken together, and about 16 per cent. in the aggregate at other cities. A gain so general and so great is not to be explained by any supposed increase in speculative transactions which chiefly affect clearings at the four cities named, nor by the settlements on commercial paper made in the winter and spring, for the increase in the first week of the month, which would naturally include the greater part of such settlements, was but little more than in the later weeks.

New business of a non-speculative character evidently exceeds that of the same month of the previous year. From all parts of the country, also, come reports that an active and prosperous fall trade is anticipated, and the crop prospects continue favorable. But the financial outlook is rendered uncertain by the continued exports of gold, the liquidation of foreign holders of securities, and the doubts about trust operations.

Secretary Windom has talked with some freedom regarding the purchases of bonds, expressing the hope that more liberal offers will come whenever there is real need of larger supplies of money, but stating that prices now paid are as high as he thinks the government ought to pay. He has no power to help matters, he shows, if it proves that those who want money are not those who have bonds to sell, but considers that the monetary supply is at present ample.

The treasury has paid out during the past week $2,500,000 more than it has taken in, but the disbursements incident to the beginning of the new fiscal year will presently have passed, leaving bond purchases the only means of disposing of the surplus revenue. Already nearly $2,000,000 gold has been ordered for export this week, but the rate for money here does not rise, nor does foreign exchange alter.

Trade is clearly larger than a year ago at Cleveland, with good collections; improving at Pittsburgh; by no means active at Milwaukee, though collections are better; excellent in both respects at Omaha and "a fair average" at Kansas City; fair at New Orleans, with collections up to expectations; unchanged at Detroit, though money is in brisk demand; and rather more active at Philadelphia and New York. At most points there is observed a full normal demand for groceries, excepting articles especially controlled by speculation or trusts, and the demand has raised coffee half a cent, with sales of 321,000 bags here, while distrust of combination has helped to lower the price of sugar an eighth. Supplies of dairy products are very large, and butter has fallen half, cheese a quarter of a cent. Pork products are a fraction lower. The movement of dry goods is a little more active here, but scanty at Philadelphia; print cloths have slightly declined to 8.94 cents for 64s, but bleached cottons are in better demand. The demand for woollens is still very conservative, but makers claim that the new and slightly advanced prices are as low as possible in view of the advance in wool.

Of the great industries, the woolen manufacture seems in most uncertainty, for the price of the material has further advanced about one cent on the average, and the tone is very firm, while manufacturers do not care to sell wool short by disposing of goods at present prices, and are not yet encouraged by the demand for goods to hope for an advance. There is a more confident feeling in the boot and shoe and leather trades, and the production having been limited by unremunerative prices, some improvement is expected. Rubber is weak at sixty-three cents for new paraffine. The coal market is dull and the demand backward, though the shipmen's east are large. The output for two weeks of July has been about 1,600,000 tons, and for the year thus far 1,300,000 less than last year, or 9 per cent.

Iron is hesitating again, for though furnaces are well sold for some weeks to come, consumers are not disposed to buy largely for later delivery at present prices and the belief that the present rate of production cannot be maintained seems to be increasing. The demand for finished products is not satisfactory, though rather better at New York, and sales of rails for the week have been but 15,000 tons. For the half year actual shipment of rails were 375,000 tons, against 585,558 last year, and 907,351 the year before. As the prospect in the stock market does not now encourage hopes of large railroad building for the rest of the year, the expectation of an advance in iron is less confident. Copper is weaker, with August lake offered at 11.75 cents, and lead is flat at 3.85 cents.

Wheat has been advanced a cent on report of extensive damage in Dakota, with sales of 17,000,000 bushels here. The accounts do not warrant expectation that they could well fall as low as 485,000,000 bushels, which, with the large surplus still in hand, will much exceed any demand at present probable. Corn has advanced half a cent and oats a quarter without special reason. Cotton has been unchanged in price and dull. Oil has advanced three cents with small trading. The general average of prices is lower by nearly half of 1 per cent. than it was a week ago, and unless crops sustain great injury, is likely to go still lower. The exports last week were large, and for half of July about 25 per cent. in excess of last year's. But stocks have tended downward, and average about $1.25 per share lower than a week ago.

Business failures during the last seven days number for the United States 188, Canada 20; total, 208; compared with 209 last week, 202 the week previous to the last and 328 for the corresponding week of last year.

FATAL CURIOSITY.

Postmaster Killed for Opening a Mail Package.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 20.—A special to The Age-Herald reports that on Thursday Postmaster Gray, of Gain, Lamar county, was shot and killed by a man who escaped. Gray lived an hour, and gave the following account of the affair:

A few days ago a package came to the office addressed "Cain." No person living there bearing that name, he returned it to the sender. A man named Burrows called for the package Thursday, and being told it had been returned, asked Gray if he had seen its contents. Gray said yes, upon which Burrows shot him, and threatened to shoot Mrs. Gray and her sister. Gray said the package had come to the office partly open, and he could not help seeing that it contained a white mask. Gray also said Burrows was the same Rube Burrows, the Arkansas train robber, who escaped from the officers at the Montgomery, Ala., a year or so ago the time his brother Jim was caught and carried back to Arkansas.

It will be remembered that Rube and Jim were in Montgomery, and a police officer had them in charge, taking them to police headquarters. At the foot of the steps both dashed for liberty, Rube escaping, shooting a printer named Bray, who tried to interrupt them. Rube was subsequently surrounded and shot at by the officers, but disappeared in the swamps, since then he has not been heard of till now.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTIONS.

Committees Making Their Reports—Fixing Judges' Salaries.

SIoux FALLS, S. Dak., July 20.—On the call of standing committees in the constitutional convention yesterday, nearly a dozen reports were made on matters which embrace one-third of the constitution. The reports made Thursday were taken up as special orders and adopted. The judiciary committee has defined the boundaries of the judicial districts, but did not report. The committee on schedule, after practically deciding to adopt the Australian ballot system, went to pieces, a majority of the committee voting against its recommendation.

Fixing Judges' Salaries.

OLYMPIA, W. T., July 20.—An almost endless discussion yesterday resulted in fixing the term of office of the five supreme judges at six years, and the twelve superior judges at four years. The salaries of the former are to be $4,000 per annum and the latter $3,000. The Democrats opposed the report of the committee for three supreme judges, at $5,000 per annum, also the committee recommendation that superior judges be paid $3,600 per annum.

A Big Four Wreck.

GREENSBURG, Ind., July 20.—The west-bound express from Cincinnati, due here at 9:29 p. m., collided Thursday night near New Point, ten miles west of here, with an east-bound freight. The freight broke in two, and the engine on the express failed to see the signal. One man, a painter, name unknown, was killed. Postal Clerk Cochran was severely injured in the telescoped mail car. The engineer and fireman saved themselves by jumping.

A Fatal Fire.

BROCKWAYVILLE, Pa., July 20.—Fire yesterday burned the Eagle Valley tannery, together with 500 cords of oak bark. John Striker, an employee, was burned to death. Andrew Striker, John Westerline, John Bargeson, John Fisher and George Smith were seriously burned and several others slightly burned. The loss is $20,000, fully insured.

DIAMOND DYES Color anything any color. Never Fade! Always sure!

Spring medicine means more now-a-days than it did ten years ago. The winter of 1888-89 has left the nerves all fagged out. The nerves must be strengthened, the blood purified, liver and bowels regulated. Paine's Celery Compound—the Spring medicine of to-day—does all this, as nothing else can. Prescribed by Physicians, Recommended by Druggists, Endorsed by Ministers, Guaranteed by the Manufacturers to be

The Best Spring Medicine.

"In the spring of 1887 I was all run down. I would get up in the morning with so tired a feeling, and was so weak that I could hardly get around. I thought of Paine's Celery Compound, and before I had taken it a week I felt very much better. I can cheerfully recommend it to all who need a building up and strengthening medicine." Mrs. B. A. Dow, Burlington, Vt.
